LAMKA COLLEGE

Introduction:

LAMKA (which means “Crossroad”, the local name of Churachandpur town) COLLEGE was founded on the 7th June, 1976. It is one among the only two highest institutions for higher education in the district. The College is a co-educational institution, catering to the needs of the tribal and other backward students in this part of the country. The College was taken over by the Government of Manipur in the year 1979. The College is located at New Lamka, Churachandpur, Manipur.

The College was first affiliated to the University of Gauhati and later affiliated to the University of Manipur when the State Government established the University in the year 1981.

The College offers a sound liberal and general education aiming at the development of character and better personality of each student through a wide range of curricular and co-curricular programmes. The College is a multi-faculty institution providing education in Humanities, Social Science and Commerce.

The medium of instruction, except vernacular subjects, is English. The Modern Indian Languages taught are Manipuri, Mizo, Hmar, Paite and Thadou-Kuki.

The College is affiliated to the University Grants Commission under Section 2(f) and 1 (b) of UGC Act, 1956.

VISION AND MISSION

VISION:

The college has its own Vision and Mission. The vision of the College reflects its Motto “LIGHT A LAMP”. The main vision of the college is to lighten human minds through learning process and building up and nurturing human capabilities to be able to match national and global competency by optimum utilization of available resources.

MISSION:

To inculcate and create a healthy academic atmosphere in the minds of the pupils within and without through scholastic and non-scholastic endeavors.

To engage the students in creative and constructive social activities so as to develop the needed skills among the students and teachers in the exercise of democratic leadership with a strong sense of national integration and social harmony.

To inculcate in the minds of the students the spirit of servitude, learning habits, positive attitude, interest and abilities for sustainable growth and intellectual development through co-curricular activities.

To equip the students with the needed skills and knowledge so that they can meet the challenges of the fast changing world and to instill in them the spirit of competency to match the highly competitive world.

To promote and develop the spirit of secularism and humanism to students through social and civic responsibility so as to develop the spirit of democratic principles for building a vibrant, secular and democratic India.

To instill and equip the student with the spirit of self-confidence, sense of responsibility, accountability and ethical values in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems and towards achieving higher goals of life through conscience and good governance.
